

Floyd County Historical Society Fund Raising Auction

(For support of the Padgett Museum House and other projects of the F.C.H.S.)

ANTIQUES / ART WORKS / COLLECTIBLES / QUALITY ITEMS/CERTIFICATES FOR SERVICES

WHEN: Saturday – July 11, 2009 at 10:00 am
(Coincides with the rescheduled Downtown Saturday for July)

WHERE: The White House Centre – 222 Pearl Street in New Albany
Facility donated by John Waggoner

AUCTIONEER: Barry Brewer
Donating his services

Bake Sale Items will be available from the FCHS Auxiliary

Donations are Needed in the above categories

Please, no clothing (unless vintage or costume) or garage sale merchandise. Donations of baked goods are also welcomed. A catalog will be prepared, so pieces must be received by Saturday, July 4. Please drop off donations at the Padgett Museum House (509 W. Market St.) any Saturday between 1:00 and 3:00 p.m., or call one of the following numbers to arrange pick-up.

Steve Anshutz	(502) 410-9551
Pam Peters	(812) 948-8711
David Barksdale	(502) 751-9686

Donations are tax deductible and appropriate receipts will be issued. Per IRS requirements, the donor is responsible for establishing evaluations.

* The Floyd County Historical Society wishes to emphasize that no articles from its permanent collection are in this sale, and, in fact, reserves the right to retain any donations that are felt to be more appropriate for the museum collection. Some items may also be held for inclusion in a later sale of a different nature.

 Rescheduled from the June 23 date that appeared in the FCHS Program for 2008-2009.